

BURGARS AGAIN PAY
STANFORD A MIDNIGHT CALL

Enter Sam Robinson's Clothing Store
Monday Night But Fail to Get
$30 in Safe

If burglars did not visit Stanford on something like a monthly average, life in the old town might become a trifle dull at times, but with the prospect of such midnight visitations and the uncertainty as to whom they will visit next, lends a keen interest to the town which keeps the oldest inhabitants from growing blasé or suffering from too much ennui.

The "Midnight Marauder" as he is so generally known in the time news—was in Stanford on his scheduled visit Monday night. This time the clothing emporium of that popular merchant Sam Robinson was the target. The County National Bank was entered, but the visit was fruitless. Mr. Robinson, with rare forethought had taken out burglar insurance in consequence, although the robber chiseled off the combination and opened the door of the big iron safe, he was unable to open an inner compartment, guarded by a steel door, in which about $30 reposed and unless he helped himself to the latest style toggery, with which Mr. Robinson's store is so well supplied, his mission was fruitless. So far, however, nothing in the clothing line has been missed as yet.

The night was a splendid one for a burglary, rainy and windy and it is probable that the thief worked for many hours on the safe, undisturbed by any one. He gained entrance by coming through the back yard and prizing off the iron bars which guard a rear window and after he had finished, opened the front door and walked out, very carefully, leaving the door, unlocked.

Robinson had $500 burglar insurance, which will more than cover the damage to the safe.

STEER DRAGS HORSE DOWN

Peculiar Mishap on Fox Dudderar's
Place with Gray Mare the Victim

Fox Dudderar, the well-known engineer-farmer, near Rowland, came near losing his old gray family mare in an unusual sort of accident last week, while he was driving over his place, looking at his feeding cattle. Mr. Dudderar had some corn in his buggy and a halter hanging over the seat. He was walking over the field, inspecting his steers. One of the heaves, scenting the feed, came up behind the buggy and thrust his head under the seat after the corn. In so doing, he became entangled in the halter, and becoming frightened, began to rear up. Mr. Dudderar, who was standing under the buggy seat and he brought the rig right long with him. Old Gray, was then wholly unaware by such an unusual state of affairs, and before she knew what was what, the steer had dragged her down. The mare, thoroughly frightened, began kicking and plunging and backing down a hill, with the horse thrown down and dragging along, and serious damage would have been done to both animals, had not Mr. Dudderar noticed the disturbance and further injury was accomplished. As it was the mare was considerably skinned and bruised.

Cundiff Gets $4,000 Damages

W. C. Cundiff, county clerk of Casey county, was awarded $4,000 damages in the Boyle Circuit Court Friday afternoon for being put off an excursion train at Ludlow last August. The case was one of the most stubbornly contested that has been tried at Danville in years. An appeal will be taken to the court of Appeals. An important feature of the case was the decision of Judge Hardin that the office of the Legislature creating the office of railway policemen is unconstitutional. Danville Advocate. State Senator Charles F. Montgomery, of Liberty was one of Cundiff's lawyers.

Alfalfa Opposite Bell Courthouse

Judge B. A. Fulton, with other men who are interested in doing something for the farmers of Bell county, has secured a vacant plot of nearly an acre, opposite the court house in Pineville, and will experiment in growing alfalfa, clover and grasses. Mother of Elder Montgomery, Dead

News comes from Liberty, in Casey, that Mrs. Rachel Montgomery, aged 82, mother of Elder J. Q. Montgomery, and grandmother of Senator C. S. Montgomery, died at her home there Saturday. Mrs. Montgomery was a noble Christian woman and had many relatives and loved ones in Lincoln county, who will mourn that she is no more.

A Tiny Farm for a Dime

Land is cheap. For easy figuring let us say it is worth $100 an acre. A square rod, then, is worth only $1, ten cents' worth will be a little more than twenty square feet, or a little farm slightly more than five feet on the side. How often a boy will waste a dime and think nothing of it. For a dime he can buy land enough to hold a flower bed, four hills of clover or a peach tree, the boy can save the dime and look like a man. The boy who learns to save a dime and to know values will some day come into his own. —From the Breckers Gazette.

He was the last of six brothers and leaves two children, one daughter, Mrs. Marshall Guerrant, of Louisville, and one son, R. M. Sparks, of Nicholasville, also one granddaughter, Mrs. Hogan Ballard, of Bryansville. His funeral was held at the residence Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

HENRY JACKSON TALKS

Popular Boyle Democrat "Mentioned" For Congress, Makes Statement

County Attorney Henry Jackson, of Boyle, came over from Danville on legal business Monday and shook hands with a good many friends on the streets after it was concluded. Mr. Jackson has been "mentioned" very strongly as a candidate for Congress. A friend of Mr. Boyle, who was with him declared that he is a sure starter and would make a great race. When asked about his plans and intentions, Mr. Jackson said:

"This rainy weather we are having is going to prevent the farmers from getting their corn planted for some time, I fear, and the present indications are that the precipitation will continue indefinitely."

To all of which his auditors gave hearty concurrence, as it was raining cats and dogs at the time.

Fine Prices for Hereford Cattle

Prisoners Get Their Earnings

Judge Stout, in the Franklin Circuit Court, Saturday decided in favor of prisoners suing the State Prison Board for a per capita allowance of their earnings under the prison labor contract from June 15, 1910, to August 1, 1912. The law permitting the prison Board to allow prisoners part of their earnings became operative June 15, 1910, and the Board of corrections, in the meantime, has been paying the prisoners a portion of their earnings until August 1, 1912. Since that day the prisoners have drawn in wages about $50,000 per year. The decree of the court requires the prison board to meet here and set apart for the prisoners a daily allowance of their earnings from June 15, 1910, to August 1, 1912.

Owls to Meet Wednesday Night

Craig Thomas, official organizer, of the order of Owls, has been here several days this week with Dr. J. T. The local members will have their first meeting here in the K. of C. hall, on Wednesday night, at 7:30 o'clock when all are expected to be present so that organization may be effected and the local nest get down to business.

Trying to Get Hotel For Danville

Hon. M. Farris, Jr., Logan Caldwell and H. H. Price, all of Danville, are in the city for a few days attending the races. While here the three gentlemen, who are among the most active of Danville's boosters, have been holding a conference with local capitalists looking to the erection of a new hotel in Danville.

It is understood that the erection of a modern hotel in Danville is regarded as a most profitable investment, but that capital has been reluctant to take up the matter, as there was no disposition on the part of the Danville people to finance the proposition themselves. The inactivity for the past few months has led some of Lexington's capitalists to infer that outside money will be welcomed in Danville for investment in hotel property. Mr. Farris this morning said that this was true and that the hotel proposition was one of the best business opportunities that now existed in Danville.

REV. HOMER CARPENTER
PRESIDENT OF STATE C. E.

Big Delegations From This Section
State go to Convention at Frankfort Saturday

Big delegations from Stanford, Lancaster, Richmond and other points in this section of the state went on the excursion to the Christian Endeavor Convention at Frankfort, Saturday.

It was decided to hold the 1915 session at Berea. Officers elected for the ensuing year were:

President—Rev. H. W. Carpenter, of Shelbyville.

Vice-President—Charles Anderson, of Louisville.

Secretary—Miss Margaret Vaughn, of Louisville.

Superintendent, Tenth Legion—H. E. Dickens, of Lexington.

Superintendent of Junior Work—Miss Nell Williams, of Louisville.

Superintendent of Prison Work—Miss Georgia Dunn, of Markburg.

Superintendent of the Introductory Department—Miss Grace Dryden, of Lexington.

During the day the banners of the Christian Endeavor Societies were presented, the Mizpah Society of the Broadway Christian church, Lexington, winning the senior one and the Frankfort Christian church winning that awarded to the juniors.

It was announced during the evening that upwards of $1,000 had been subscribed to the cause of Christian Endeavor during the convention.

An address by Rev. C. B. Boving, of Fulton, Mo., on the "Future Leadership of the Church," at the morning session, was one of the many interesting features with which it abounded.

At the afternoon session the chief features were the junior hour, conducted by Miss Nell Williams, and the prison hour, followed by several addresses of interest to the delegates.

Three of the Frankfort pulpits were occupied by visiting preachers Sunday morning. At the First Christian church the Rev. D. A. Poling, of Boston, occupied the pulpit. The Rev. Karl Lehmann, field worker of the world for the U. S. U. who had from Denver, Colo., preached at the First Methodist church and at the Southern Presbyterian church the Rev. C. B. Boving, of Fulton, Mo., delivered the sermon.

The feature of Saturday's session was the "sunrise prayer meeting" at the First Christian church, at 6 o'clock. Two hundred attended and the meeting lasted an hour. The experiment was considered a gratifying success.

On Sunday the C. E. held services at the State Prison and afterward adopted resolutions favoring national prohibition. The delegates gathered at the penitentiary at 10 o'clock and remained until noon. They enjoyed the freedom of the prison and the delegates held union meetings in which noted prisoners, Henry Young, of the Kentucky Penitentiary, and other participants, Karl Leimann, international secretary and D. A. Poling, superintendent of the reform work of the national organization, made addresses. The set program of devotional and consecration services was carried out.

Those who went from here were, Mrs. Eliza Blain, Mrs. J. N. Saunders, Miss Sophia Saunders, Mrs. G. C. Perry, R. E. McCann, Perry, Mrs. J. B. Faxon, Miss Jean Faxon, J. B. Faxon, Mrs. D. Phillips, Miss Logan McCall, Mrs. J. H. Woner, Misses Elizabeth and Nancy Hunt, Mrs. Nellie Ballou, Joseph Ballou, Mrs. Jessie Stagg, Miss Elizabeth Stagg, Mrs. W. P. Kincaid, Miss Lizzie Davis, Allie Russell, Mrs. Craig Fish, Anna Leitch, Mrs. M. E. Embury, Harry Embury, Miss Marion Grimes, Miss Sophia Grimes, Miss Ruth Darnal, Miss Sophronia Fox, Miss Sallie M. Craig, Miss Lottie Carson and Miss Emma Hays.

The First Baptist church of Wilkesboro has completed arrangements for putting in a $3,000 pipe organ in their church. The church at Williamsburg is a very handsome and modern building and the organ that they will put in will be a very handsome one. The entire plans and specifications of the new organ have been submitted to Mrs. J. E. Martin, of Jellico, who is an accomplished pipe organist, for the inspection and approval.

Kentucky Baptists contributed $83,235 to a mission fund of $1,000,000 solicited by the Baptist church of the United States, according to an announcement made by the Rev. W. D. Powell, secretary of the Baptist State board of Missions. The amount raised in this state, he said, was $5,000 more than was asked for by the national body, and of this amount $47,876 will be used for foreign missions and $35,357 for home missions. Dr. Powell declared the Northern States closed their campaign with a heavy deficit, and that the large contributions of the southern states undoubtedly would make the total sum reach the $1,000,000 mark. Women's missionary societies in Kentucky, he said, took an active interest in the campaign, and it was largely due to their efforts that more than $80,000 was raised in this state.

Cattle Poisoners at Work in Marion

Some one with evident intent to poison 20 head of fine cattle poured Paris green in the feeding trough at the barn of C. R. Harmon near Lebanon last week. Fortunately two of his sons discovered the poison and drove the cattle out and closed the barn. Dr. Hobbs has since been doctoring the cattle eight which were very sick. BIG CROWD EXPECTED
IN TOWN SATURDAY

Beckham to Speak in Stanford in His Campaign for Nomination for U. S. Senator

Indications are that an unusually large crowd will be in Stanford on Saturday next, May 9th, when Ex-Gov. J. C. W. Beckham speaks here at the courthouse in the interest of his candidacy for the United States Senate. Gov. Beckham has always been a great favorite in Lincoln county and he is going to receive a large vote here in the primary on August 1st. He spoke at Lebanon Monday and the courthouse was not large enough to hold the crowd which turned out to hear him. Politicians all over the state, whether they are for Beckham, or not, are beginning to concede that he has made a runaway race of the senatorial contest and many of his enthusiastic friends are claiming that he will get more votes than both Stanley and McCleary combined. Gov. Beckham will speak at Perryville, Boyle county, on Friday afternoon.

Stanley at Waynesburg

Congressman Owsley Stanley, who is also making a speaking tour of the state as a candidate for the Senate, was here on Monday, May 11, at 10 o'clock, and after conferring with his friends, Mr. Stanley came on to Stanford, and went from here Tuesday to Point Lick where he was scheduled for a speech this afternoon. Senator R. L. Huddle, Carroll Shanks and J. S. Owsley, Jr., who are among his leaders in this county, went down to Waynesburg in a car, to hear him and brought him back to Stanford where he spent the night as the guest of Mr. Shanks.

Beckham Club in Danville

An enthusiastic meeting of Beckham men was held at the court house Saturday afternoon. The meeting was largely attended and Col. Evans, Mr. J. Durham and others delivered interesting talks. Mr. B. J. Durham was elected president; Dr. J. E. Caldwell, vice president; Mr. Robert Reed, secretary and treasurer; and Mr. Eugene Peterson, on motion, to propose an aggressive fight for the Bardstown man—Danville Advocate.

BEEF CATTLE FEEDERS

To Meet at Lexington to Inspect Specially Fed Bees

A number of Lincoln county cattle feeders are planning to attend the meeting of the beef cattle feeders of Kentucky which will be held at the Kentucky Experiment Station farm, Lexington, on Monday, May 11 at 10 o'clock for the purpose of inspecting the steers on experiment feed, two lots of which are ready for the market. One lot of steers which is now ready to be sold has given a ration of ear corn, cottonseed meal, cottonseed hulls and a limited amount of clover hay. Another lot of the same weight at the beginning of the experiment and now fat, was given corn silage in addition to the above named feeds, the ear corn feed being less the amount of corn contained in the silage.

Two other lots of lighter weight steers at the beginning of the experiment have been fed similarly to the first lot, with the exception that the ration has been so limited in the amount as to secure a moderate gain during the winter, with the view of finishing these cattle on grass without grain during the coming summer. This experiment will throw a light on the gains that can be secured on cattle on pasture which have received corn silage the previous winter in comparison with other cattle receiving the same ration with the exception of the silage. Careful statistics as to the gains of the cattle and various lots as well as the amounts and cost of feeds given have been kept and will be presented at this meeting. Two lots of these steers will be sold by or on May 11. All interested in the feeding of beef cattle are invited to attend this meeting.

LITTLE BOY'S EYE BLOWN OUT

When Some Dynamite Caps He Found Exploded in His Hand

Jack Beagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Beagle, residing south of Parksville, found some dynamite caps last week and not realizing the awful danger, lighted a match, causing the caps to explode, tearing away the thumb and two middle fingers on one hand, and destroying the sight of the other eye. The boy and his family came to Boyle county from Tennessee a few years ago and have made many friends who sympathize with them and deeply deplore the horrible accident. Mr. Beagle had been using some dynamite caps recently and he had placed the dynamite where the children would not find it. He with his physician, Dr. W. W. Sparrow, and the injured boy, left for Louisville Wednesday morning. The sight of the child's eye having been destroyed, the parents were so much distressed that they were deemed a necessity by the surgeons to remove the eye in order to save the boy's life.

HUERTA APPEARS TO BE AT END OF HIS ROPE

Mexican Dictator in Dire Straits And May Abdicates—Latest Gossip
From Seat of Trouble

Mexico City, May 5.—The iron and steel nerves of General Huerta have been shattered. The man whose hand was never before known to tremble is now almost a nervous wreck. The strain under which he has lived for ten days transformed him into a mere wreck of his former self.

For a week General Huerta has not slept in his bed. All night he rides through the streets of Mexico City in his automobile, frequently drinking heavily of strongest brandy to steady himself. And when from complete exhaustion he does, the tired chauffeur stops the automobile, and it remains motionless until Huerta awakes with a start and orders the chauffeur to move on.

One night the man who calls himself President of Mexico rode through the forest of Chapultepec from dark until daylight. When he would do the automobile would stop under those aged and gnarled cypress trees and Huerta would sleep.

General Huerta is keeping himself alive by means of strong drink. When it taken away from him now he would die. That is the report given out by men closest to him.

He realizes that he is hopelessly lost—that the only thing left to him is either suicide or fight. He is dying hard, but he is dying, and is now in the last throes of his death struggle.

Meanwhile, he is to the men who surround him like a wild hyena backed up against the wall and surrounded by foes. No one dares to oppose him nor reason with him. He distrusts every one, even his son, Jone. He knows that the capital is honeycombed with treason, that every one of the mad wolves whose pack he had led is ready to turn on him at a moment's notice.

The flower of his army has been sent against Carranza and Villa in the north. In the capital he is practically unprotected and only his most wonderful power to command keeps him from being overthrown. Men who hate him receive their orders and obey through fear. They are afraid to attempt to shoot him or to stab him. His very look compels obedience.

In his capital General Huerta has a garrison composed of the most part by children, many of them not more than ten years old and scarcely strong enough to carry a rifle. These children are helping him hold his power. No one believes that his power can continue but little longer. Every one knows that he is now tottering to his fall.

This morning no one knows when or how that fall will come—if a bullet from his automatic revolver shall crush through his brain or if he will abdicate.

Rebels Hold Entire Northern Border

Brownsville, Tex., May 4.—For the first time since the revolution began, the Mexican Constitutionalists Thursday were in control of the entire northern frontier of Mexico divided by the Rio Grande from Texas. Four strategic garrison towns and 800 miles of rich land are included in the territory.

The rebels completed their control of the section last week when Nuevo Laredo and Piedras Negras were occupied without the firing of a shot. The rebels, headed by General Brownsville, at the mouth of the Rio Grande, and Juarez, where revolutions are made, were the important northern points under the sway of Venustiano Carranza. The federal garrison of Nuevo Laredo and Piedras Negras evacuated the town suddenly after United States forces landed at Vera Cruz.

In departing the Federals did what damage they could by fire and dynamite. Nuevo Laredo almost being destroyed. Then the Constitutionalists marched in and took possession without resistance of towns around which many stubborn battles had raged. At both places, it was announced, business will be rapidly resumed and normal conditions restored.

Army in Charge of Vera Cruz

Vera Cruz, May 4th.—The task of guarding the city of Vera Cruz and its environs was taken over from the navy by Brigadier General Frederick Funston and the Fifth Infantry Brigade, U. S. A.

While martial law still is continued in force the actual municipal government is being conducted by Robert J. Carr, the American Civil Governor, who enlisted the aid of Mexican officials to act with him in accordance with Mexican law.

After a morning enlivened by the marching of large bodies of American soldiers, sailors and marines the city resumed its normal and somewhat sleepy daily life. The evening, however, was made gay by outdoor dinner parties at the numerous cafes and restaurants, accompanied by music and sometimes by dancing.

The American troops began their disembarkation at an early hour. Once on shore they were lined up along the docks and in the railroad yards and before noon all had marched to the posts assigned to them in the city, and outlying suburbs.

As the various detachments swung into the streets, their flags flying and bands playing national airs head them, the natives appeared on their balconies and gazed with undisguised wonder at the solid ranks of brown-clad soldiers. The people seemed to marvel at the precision of the American soldiers' movements and the sturdy appearance of the men in the ranks.

Many American civilians, who had been taking their breakfast outdoors left their tables and watched with pride the passing troops shouting volleys of "hurrahs" and waving hats or handkerchiefs at them.

Shortly after the last of the troops had passed through the central streets Brigadier General Funston, with several aids, drove by in a carriage and was greeted with an outburst of applause.

Refugee Story at Vera Cruz

Vera Cruz, May 5.—Many American refugees continue to arrive from the capital and they bring divergent stories of the situation there. Arrangements are being made today to send a naval vessel to Huerta, Mexico, to meet a large number of refugees due there Tuesday morning.

Today's arrival from Mexico City reports a growing undercurrent of feeling against the Huerta regime and of a rumor of a rupture between Huerta and General Blanquet, minister of war. It was the latter with the crack Twenty-ninth regiment that took the military coup which resulted in the downfall of President Francisco I. Madero.

Some of the returning Americans who claim to have information from those close to Huerta declare that he is re-iterating to confidants that he will never resign, but talks of the possibilities of coup against him. Several of the American business men say the foreign diplomatic representatives counseled them not to leave the capital; that there was no necessity to do so, as there was practically no danger and the whole situation would be clarified soon.

The refugees generally expressed disappointment at the lack of any indications of an advance of the Americans on the capital. They say the best class of Mexicans share this view.

There is speculation in official circles regarding the disposition of the customs revenues of this port, said to aggregate over a million dollars in gold a month. The Federal officers who filed inland took important papers from the custom house files and it is difficult for the American officials to clear up business in the warehouses to ascertain the exact distribution of the revenues. Mexican customs receipts are pledged in part as security for the old national loan and the remainder was pledged by Huerta for the recent French loan.

For the present all the customs receipts will be impounded to await instructions from Washington. Several cargoes have been unloading during the last few days and more ships are reported as cleared for this port from the United States and Europe so that the accumulated receipts will soon reach a considerable amount.

The demand for fractional American currency was suddenly increased today when H. M. Robinson, superintendent of the United States railway mail service, who has taken charge of the postoffice, placed American postage stamps on the market and stipulated that they must be paid for in American money.

MERCER BOYS EXCITING TIME

Son of Col. E. H. Gaither, of Harrodsburg In Fighting Down in Mexico

News comes from Harrodsburg that Col. E. H. Gaither, an attorney of that city has received a message from Mexico giving the details of an exciting experience of his son, Ike Gaither, who with two brothers, Edgar and Morton and an uncle, George Gaither, are in Mexico.

Ike Gaither was located near Jaopala about a year ago a valuable saddle mare was stolen from him by a band of Mexicans and young Gaither declared he would kill any Mexican he caught riding her. When the recent hostilities broke out, Gaither made his way to Vera Cruz just as the Americans were landing. He joined them and in the fight that followed, he observed a Mexican soldier riding the mare that had been stolen from him and promptly shot and killed him and recovered the animal.

Edgar Gaither, who is a mining engineer, was at Guanajuato and Morton was at San Luis Potosi and George Gaither was in Mexico when the trouble broke out and the two last named brothers got into Mexico City with their uncle and it is hoped all got out safely.

Bull Moose to Have Candidates

At a conference in Lexington last week, Progressive party leaders decided to put out a candidate for United States Senator and congressional candidates in each of the districts. It was stated after the conference that George W. Jolly, of Owensboro, had virtually announced his candidacy for the nomination by the Progressives for Senator and that James F. Fairleigh, of Louisville, would also be a candidate, as would Thomas Theobald, of Carter county. Thomas L. Walker, who was formerly postmaster of Lexington, and who is member at large of the Progressive State Committee, at the conclusion of the meeting this afternoon said: "The Progressives are getting ready to start something in Kentucky, and that pretty soon. While the stand pat Republican leaders and press have been making the welkin ring with their distressed cries of 'get together,' the Progressives have been quiet and playing a waiting game to see what kind of an olive branch the Republicans had to offer. Since the peace offering to all intent and purposes is Bradley for Senator or someone that he will name, the Progressives have let it be known in no uncertain terms that they will have nothing to do with the Republicans, no matter what kind of an olive branch is held out, and so the woods are full of Progressive candidates for Congressman and for Senator."

Whereas, the Baptist people of McKinney, have sustained great loss in the burning of their house of worship on April 24th, Therefore be it resolved:

2nd That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this church, and a copy be sent to the officers of the church.

Done by order of the Baptist church April 26, 1914.

Some people make themselves so much at home that they make other people wish they were.

There is a sort of novelty about wheeling the first baby around in a buggy. But you never see a man wheeling his third one around.

After a girl becomes engaged to a pie-faced, watery-eyed, bell-nosed, big-eared mutt she lays awake all night worrying for fear some other girl will kidnap him.

Health a Factor in Success
The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by all dealers.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irritable. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight.

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and help build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

FEELS LIKE A NEW WOMAN

As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Dispelled Backache, Headache and Dizziness.

Piqua, Ohio.—"I would be very ungrateful if I failed to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise it deserves, for I have taken it at different times and it always relieved me when other medicines failed, and when I hear a woman complain I always recommend it. Last winter I was attacked with a severe case of organic weakness. I had backache, pains in my hips and lower my kidneys, headache, dizziness, lassitude, had no energy, limbs ached and I was always tired. I was hardly able to do my housework. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on one other occasion, and it had helped me so I took it again and it built me up, until now I feel like a new woman. You have my hearty consent to use my name and testimonial in any way and I hope it will benefit suffering women."—Mrs. ORPHEA TURNER, 431 S. Wayne St., Piqua, Ohio.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

EUBANKS

Dr. J. B. Acton, our new postmaster, took charge of the postoffice Monday. It seems strange for a democrat to be handling the mail but it looks good to us. Dr. Acton's appointment meets with the approval of the majority of the patrons and the place was due him as he has always been a untiring party worker and above all was an original Wilson man. Dr. Acton's congenial disposition and his business ability helped secure him the position over six other applicants, and insures the patrons the most efficient service ever rendered at this office.

The democratic voters of this place were not sufficiently interested in the candidacy of Hon. A. O. Stanley to ever attend his speaking at either Somerset or Waynesburg. The sentiment of the voters here is overwhelmingly for Gov. C. W. Beckham.

Eubank voted 146 to 5 in favor of the recent bond issue, and the voters are eager to get another election at an early date. Festsburg, Good Hope and Woodstock voted almost unanimously in favor of good roads. The four precincts named above, furnished 596 votes for and 32 against the bond issue. A grand record.

Mrs. V. N. Bastin has been visiting relatives at King's Mountain.

Messrs. T. W. McLaughlin, J. O. Wheelodon, E. L. Good, J. R. Nelson and Frank Hays were in Somerset Saturday. They made the trip in Mr. Wheelodon's new car.

ROOSTER DAY

Promises to Be a Big Rooster Day in Kentucky and Tennessee

The Agricultural Department at Washington, has issued the following at the instance of the poultrymen of Kentucky and Tennessee, and local dealers are preparing to make it a big day. "In the interest of the infertile egg the poultry specialties of the Department of Agriculture have started a campaign for the elimination of the rooster among poultry flocks during the seasons between May 1 and December 1. In this connection Saturday, May 16, has been set aside as "Rooster Day" in Kentucky and Tennessee, when every poultry dealer in these states has agreed to pay the same prices for roosters as they do for hens and pullets. There is an enormous loss in eggs as the result of the fertile egg, especially during the summer and fall months, and it is for this reason the department of agriculture recommends that the rooster be kept away from the hens during these seasons. It is estimated that one-third of the tremendous annual loss of eggs is due to the fertile egg. It is not necessary for a rooster to be among hens in order that their laying quantities may not be curtailed. The rooster, it is advised, should be allowed with the hens only during the breeding season, and eggs that are intended for hatching purposes should be fertile, as the infertile ones will not hatch. Fertile eggs spoil very quickly when subjected to the ordinary methods of handling on the farm and when marketed during the hot summer months under adverse conditions. Infertile eggs will keep in good condition in temperatures which will cause fertile eggs to rot.

The department advises that on the first day of May all birds be either killed, sold or confined until the first of December or as late as the first of January in some localities.

It is advisable to market the old hens in the summer as soon as the second laying season is over, continuing the department's advice, as hens over two years old rarely lay as many eggs as they do in their pullet and yearling seasons. Keep the nests clean, provide one nest for every four hens, gather the eggs twice daily, keep the eggs in a cool, dry room or cellar, and market them at least twice a week. Market all cockerels except those intended for breeding purposes, as soon as they attain broiler size, for they will pay a larger profit at that time than if held until fall, when the market becomes overstocked.

The department is planning a campaign among the boys' and girls' poultry clubs in Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and North and South Carolina, to encourage not only the production of a better grade of eggs, but a more uniform method of grading. Arrangements are being made to offer prizes for the production of the best broiler eggs and it is expected that the State, county, or municipal officials will offer such prizes as trips to the Pan-American Exposition at San Francisco.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is usually the result of a diseased condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or impaired hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and this condition can be taken care of and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored forever; also cases of tinnitus are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

STOP THAT WASTE

THE stalks and husks from your corn crop represent just so much life taken out of your soil. If you do not use them for feed and return them to the ground in the form of fertilizer you are getting poorer every year. If your fields and barn yard are littered with stalks and your ground is growing less fertile season after season you need an

INDIANA SILO

It will convert all your corn from the ground level to the tassels, into fresh, succulent feed and it will keep your cattle in prime condition all year round. Best of all—it will pay for itself out of what it saves for you in a single season. There will be another winter before long, with high priced feed and hard work in zero weather. Why not get ready for it by erecting an Indiana Silo before next harvest time.

We've got a mighty good proposition to make to you right now—a money saver. Give us a chance to tell you about it.
